

Board Profiles

Jennifer Clark

Jennifer has worked in non-profit resource development, management and governance for more than 20 years in both the post secondary education and healthcare sectors, and has volunteered on the front-lines and in governance with organizations in the social-service sector.

She has held leadership roles in a number of successful multi-year and multi-channel capital and endowment campaigns at the University of Toronto, Ryerson University, and York University. In 2008 she and her husband moved from Toronto to their farm in Durham Region.

Since that time Jennifer has served as the inaugural executive director of the Ontario Shores Foundation for Mental Health and corporate and board secretary of Durham College (DC). Jennifer returned to fundraising at the outset of DC's Building Something Amazing campaign, where she now serves as senior development officer. Jennifer has served on the Board of Directors of SKETCH – Working Arts for Homeless and Street Involved Youth, volunteers through a DC employee program at St. Vincent's Kitchen, and has interviewed candidates for the LORAN Awards since 1995.
