

Board Profiles

Massoda Ma-Nlep, CPA, CMA

Massoda spent his early childhood in Cameroon. Following his graduation from high school, he went to Hamburg-Germany to study Chemical Engineering where he acquired a Bachelor Degree from the University of Applied Sciences Hamburg in 1996.

In April 2000, Massoda moved to Toronto. In December 2005, he received a position at the Canada Revenue Agency and currently continues his growth within the organization. In 2010, Massoda went on to study Business Administration and earned an MBA from the University of Ottawa and he holds a Chartered Professional Accountant designation (CPA, CMA).

Massoda is fluent in French, English, German and Bassa. He is a husband and father of three children; also, Massoda enjoys practising as well as teaching Goju Ryu Karate.